Hello and welcome to my blog!

There is something we all have in common - teachers! Yes we have all had teachers. Some of us have had more than others, some have learned valuable lessons from outside of school but all of us have been influenced by teachers.

When we think back, most of us can think of a teacher who had a major impact on our lives. For me it was Ms. Esther Weinstock, my English teacher at Burbank High School. Ms. Weinstock made me believe I could write and inspired me to do so!

Teachers are, and have always been, our partners. Why not show support for teachers and formalize this partnership? Read Facing the Future Together: Forming Successful School-Business Partnerships!
